Once Upon A Time . . .

in the Rush Springs Elementary School there were two first grade classes. Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Spears divided between them twenty-seven of the members of the present Senior class. If you listened in on roll call, you would have heard . . . Earnie, Allen, Nick, Ronnie, Curtis, Jackie, Tom, Johnny, David, Jerry, James, Lori, Crickett, Sheila, Karla, Sally, Carol, Cathy, Debbie, Pam, Leigh Ann, Trenia, Vicki, Renee, Jackie, Joy and Laura.

SECOND GRADE was a time of improvement. Mrs. Parish and Mrs. Young spent many long hours improving our writing. Their favorite words were "Practice, Practice, Practice." The girls practiced readily by writing love letters to the newest student, Allen Heilman.

THIRD GRADE brought with it Paul Musshafen, Sherri Wright and Donald Harris. It was a time of excitement because it was the first year classes were held in the gym. Everyone wanted to be in Mrs. Pelley's class in the gym so that they could enjoy ice cold water fountains and those nifty new desks. Some of the class, however, stayed behind with Mrs. Combs and Mrs. Stewart.

FOURTH GRADE was a time of musical activities. When we weren't singing our multiplication tables, we were singing "Jeremiah Was a Bullfrog!" We also participated in band and vocal for the first time. Along with this year came Frankie Peterman, Tammy Caywood, and Shirley Willson. We now have 34 of the present Senior class.

We journeyed onward to the FIFTH GRADE and acquired Kenny Green, Starla Walters, Kim Haney and Kelly Walker. This was a time of growing up for we exchanged our happy recess time for short breaks. We also started basketball practice with Mr. Conover as our coach.

As SIXTH GRADERS we were the seniors of grade school. Our graduation exercises were second to none and many of us still remember phrases from those memorable speeches and poems.

Changing classes and sharing lockers came with the SEVENTH GRADE. Climbing stairs became our daily exercise. Among two other newcomers, Donnie Pyle and Duane Cunningham, was Donnie Funk, the boy from West Virginia who didn't believe there was such a word as "almost."

Finally the EIGHTH GRADE rolled around and Chris Watts was the new boy that year and Jana Williams was the new girl. It was a year of intense romance. It brings back fond memories of that first kiss with that first steady.

As FRESHMEN our group had the distinction of being the first class to be included in high school. We had three new additions to our class, Nina Coody, Cheryl McClure, and Greg Wright. The boys were on Cloud Nine because they won the Conference Championship in football.

Our feelings as super SOPHOMORES were slightly deflated when we learned that the definition of "Sophomore" means "wise fool". However, we lived up to the name during drivers' ed. and as water bucket guards in football and basketball. The latest arrivals were Norma McVey, Diane McCullough, and Bobby Young.

During the JUNIOR YEAR, the necessity of providing food for 155 hungry people kept us going from one money-making project to another. Banquet night as we experienced the elegant mood created by our extensive decorations, eleborate banquet dresses, distinguished tuxedos, and classy attendants, we all agreed that it was well worth the effort. Cathy Davis came in time to enjoy all of this.

At last our SENIOR year arrived. Our number now is fifty-one including our latest member, Valerie Mayes. Senioritis hit us hard and so did senior expenses—pictures, announcements, caps and gowns. The decade has dawned. It is 1980 and we have graduated.

Stardust Memories

The Rush Springs High School gymnasium was transformed into a celestial scene on Friday night, April 27th, as the Junior class entertained the Seniors at their annual banquet. The theme was "Stardust Memories". Invited as special guests were the administration, school board, class parents, class sponsors, parking attendants and spouses. Upon arrival, guests were met in the parking lot by attendants who parked their cars. Those serving as attendants were James Heilman, Richard Krey, Roy Jennings and Pete Smelley. All were dressed in black tuxedos and blue ruffled shirts. The decor of the room was done in blue star streamers, which draped from the ceiling and sides of the gym. The guests entered between two constellation columns and were registered by the Sophomore hostesses, Janie Smith and Tammy Jennings. They were escorted to their tables by the Sophomore ushers, Woodrow Sweat, Steve Stewart, Tim Werhan and Greg Price. Other decorations in the room included a Man in the Moon, large blue star spheres, and spiral staircase. Serving as a border around the room were 2'x3' picture posters of the Seniors made from early childhood photographs. These were given to the Seniors at the close of the banquet. The meal was served at tables decorated with blue plume centerpieces and blue candles. The waitresses were dressed in uniforms highlighted with blue satin aprons trimmed in lace and matching headpieces. Serving as Mistress of Ceremonies was Jackie Smelley. The Junior welcome was given by Kelly Walker and the Senior response was by Nancy Price. Dale Hodges, school superintendent, presented a few remarks to the classes and was followed by Renee Rust who presented gifts to the Junior sponsors, Annys Brantley, J.L. Kay and Cliff Pettijohn. The King and Queen contest was conducted by Karla Dennis and Jerry Slawson. Candidates who were selected earlier by the classes were: Kelly Walker escorted by Nick Lewis, Jackie Smelley escorted by Frankie Peterman, Renee Rust escorted by Chris Watts, Nancy Davis escorted by Jerry Stewart, Kim Roberts escorted by Gregg Dowling, and Margie Brown escorted by Andy Rodiger. Crowned King and Queen were Chris Watts and Renee Rust. The Senior History, Will and Prophesy were read by Sharon Blanton and Jim Gibson. The entertainment was furnished by Jeff and Vicki Gelona, Mark McElroy and Mark Temple of Oklahoma City. An evening resulting from many long hours of preparation and hard work was enjoyed by 155 persons who will have "Stardust Memories" for a long time to come.

Superbowl '80

This year's championship game was held at the Rose Bowl in Pasedena, California. The Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Los Angelas Rams.

Could a Milky Way candy bar really cost 65 cents? Or postage for a letter 40 cents? It could all come true by 1989, if prices keep soaring in the next 10 years at the rate they have in the past decade. Listed below are examples of prices you can expect in 1989 based on changes in the cost of each item or service since 1969.

McDonald's Big Mac
Now $1.00 1989 $2.05

Disneyland admission, adult
Now $6.00 1989 $10.25

Cigarettes, carton
Now $5.41 1989 $9.35

Ford Mustang, 2 door hard-top, 6 cylinders
Now $5882.00 1989 $9840.00

Pres. Jimmy Carter was really in-the-news this year with the Iran Crisis, the Energy Crisis, and what we could call the Russian Crisis.

The United States has boycotted the 1980 Summer Olympics, which were to be held in Moscow this year. This action expresses the United States' disapproval of Russia's move on Afghanistan.

Lake Placid, NY

The 1980 Winter Olympics began February eigth. The United States was honored to host the winter games at Lake Placid, New York.

CARTER VS. KHOMEINI

Iran, under the leadership of Ayatollah Khomeini, seized the American Embassy in Iran and took 50 Americans as hostages. In return for the hostages they demanded that the United States deliver the deposed Shah of Iran, Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, unto them. The United States refused their conditions and demanded the release of the hostages. By seizing the Embassy, Iran has broken international law and by holding the hostages against their will, they are violating their human rights.

Crowning of the 1980 Hobo Queen with a charming crown made from a Quaker oats box climaxed an evening which featured a banquet for FHA mothers and members and installation of officers. The 1979 Queen, Glenda Dennis, performed the coronation ceremonies. To achieve this high position the Hobo Queen had led the freshman class members in doing odd jobs to raise money.

During the summer the captains and other drill team members went to the National Cheerleading Camp at Thunderhawk where they learned many different routines such as hand and pom pom routines.

For the second year in the history of Rush Springs the Drill Team is outstanding. The girls worked hard on their routines. Their performances were; "If My Friends Could See Me Now," "Charlie Chaplin and the Keystone Cops," "Birth of the Blues," "Soul Man," " Shake Your Groove Thing," "Ease on down the Road," and "The Main Event" which they performed at the homecoming. Among other things they sold "Wild and Crazy" Redskin T-Shirts. The girls would like to express their appreciation to Paula Orf, their sponsor, for all her help.

Drama Club members delighted audiences by performing two plays, "A Crazy Violet" and "Broken Sentence". The first revolved around an eccentric character, Violet Rae, played by Kelly McClure. Joining in the excitement caused by a bomb scare were characters played by Joy Willoughby, Starla Walters, Lori Burner, Shirley Singleterry, Kim Porter, Linda Derozier, and Lorenda Beaver. The theme of the second play centered on efforts of two spinster sisters, played by Karla Dennis and Sally Dennis, to reform two teenage girls, played by Pam Keith and Shirley Willson. Sherri Wright joined the cast as probation officer.

SENIORS

The '79-'80 Rush Springs Redskin Basketball team was small in many areas. There were only nine members on this year's team and the tallest player stood just 6'0" tall.

Many people may think by looking at their win-loss record that they were losers, but this wasn't the case. Their school pride and team hustle showed in all the games in which they participated. Against many teams superior to them, they refused to give up. They can always be proud of this and this kind of pride will help them to achieve their goals in the future.

SENIORS

As coach of the Lady Redskins I'd like to commend these young ladies for their earnest dedication to the athletic program of Rush Springs High School.

The 1979-80 Lady Redskins displayed outstanding desire and determination. This influenced their will to expend long, hard hours practicing, anticipating and playing ball to the best of their ability. I measure their success not only from the record, but the quality of character and effort these fine young girls maintained all season.

We say farewell and thanks to our Seniors, Sally, Cathy, Karla, Renee, who contributed greatly to the basketball program. May they continue to carry their winning attitude throughout life.

Boosting the spirits of the student body and helping to improve conditions around school are two main purposes of the student council. In trying to achieve these goals they had several projects this year including nine girls attending the state Student Council Convention at Putnam City West High School. The council also kept the hall bulletin board attractively decorated. In addition, they also sponsored a film, a Christmas door decorating contest and the high school basketball homecoming.

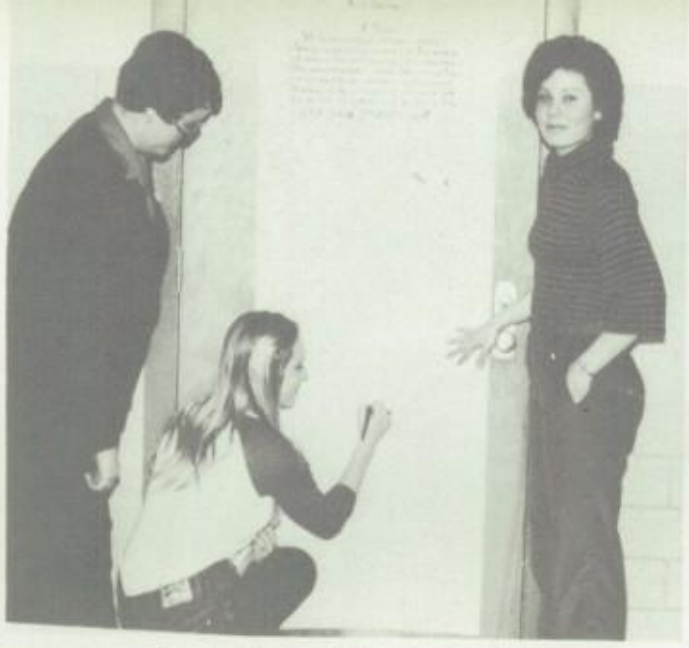
FORD



This school year was filled with activities for students and faculty alike. Members of the Student Council led in participation of unity week to remember the hostages. Music flourished under the direction of Mrs. Duke and Mr. Krey. Students learned that there were some unusually talented song birds among the Redskins. Band members celebrated the purchase of new suits while an energetic group of cheerleaders worked to keep spirit at an all-time high. Students also found time to keep up studies and continue class projects.

As the Redskin goes to press the basketball teams are still engaged in completing their schedules. Redskin players are doing their best both to show skill and sportmanship.

SPORTS CANDIDS

Coached by Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Kay, the 6th and 7th grade football team chalked up an undefeated season. Their offense averaged 18 points per game, while the defense only allowed two touchdowns. Outstanding team work and hustle characterized the entire team.

The Jr. High Football team finished their season with a winning record of 4-3. The largest number of players went out for the Jr. High team than in the past several years. Outstanding leadership and team play highlighted the season.

MIDDLE SCHOOL HONOR SOCIETY

MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL

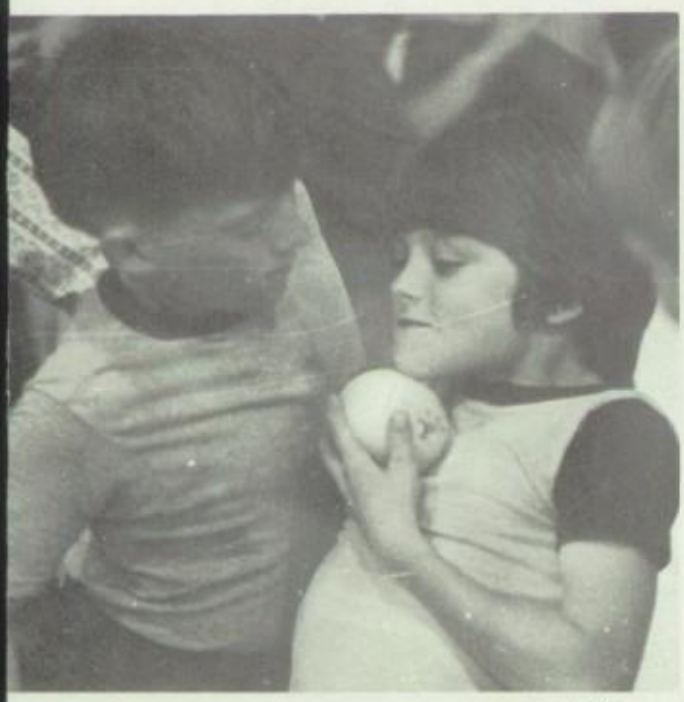
David Watts, David Ballard, Brad McAdoo, Lesa Jennings, Lisa Landrum, Michelle Townsend, Sandy Tedder, Marty Duke, John Morrow, Angela Matthews, SPONSOR, Mrs. Werhan.

Middle school students celebrated the coming of Spring 1979 with a Crazy Spring Daze sponsored by the Middle School Student Council. Tony Brewer and Lori Charlson were selected King and Queen Spring and the grades tied in their efforts to win the trophy by winning contests such as relay race, balloon races, and grapefruit passing.



When the Fall of '79 came middle school students were still very involved. They especially enjoyed shop where they participated in many creative projects. Naturally, they also continued with regular school activities . . .

Middle school students welcomed Governor Nigh and Lieutenant Governor Bernard when they visited Rush Springs.

MIDDLE SCHOOL BAND

NOT SHOWN: James Burnett and Darren Southerland

The Rush Springs Middle School Marching and Concert Band has participated in several activities throughout the 1979-1980 school year. They provided the half-time entertainment at Jr. High football games both home and away. At the last high school home game they performed with the high school band in field marching. During the fall band members worked industriously to sell tickets to a turkey dinner to provide funds for band projects. In December they marched in the First Annua Christmas Festival Parade in Chickasha. In the spring they participated in the Rush Springs annual spring band concert. A trip to Six Flags Over Texas in May was the reward received for their hard work throughout the year.

The Sixth Graders fully enjoyed the reward for their show of school spirit on Black & White Day for Jr. High Football Homecoming. They earned their Tootsie Roll Pops with 100% participation.

The 6th and 7th grade girls and boys basketball teams received the sportmanship Trophy awarded at the Pioneer Invitational Tournament held Jan. 7-11. The award was based on the attitude of players toward other teams and themselves, participation of players, and attitude and behavior of the coaches. The teams were voted on by all coaches in the tournament.
